

2018 April McGlenn's Prayer Letter

The last three months have been very event full for my Adventures Safaris mission.

1. House - I was able to get my house ready and put on the market for sale in January. It sold in seven days and I got a very good price for it. That money will be able to go into a Roth IRA to help in my retirement program 10 so years from now. The house closed on February 16.

2. Status - As I've said in previous letters, I've been dating Amy Pei Li. We were married on Valentine's Day, February 14. We took a nice five day cruise from LA to Ensenada, Mexico for our honeymoon. We are very happy, and look forward to serving God through my mission in the years ahead.

5. China - We are planning to go to China in October to Yunnan Province in the southern part of China. Through a homeschool mom, we met her missionary parents who would like us to come there to teach creation science to homeschool and college students. We need to raise $3000 in order to accomplish this mission. $500 has already been pledged and we need an additional $2500 to go for a month. We are excited because Amy knows the culture and speaks the language and together we can serve Jesus in China with the gospel.

5. Museum – We have a lot of good ideas for promoting the museum and getting the message out about God's creation and handiwork as exhibited there. In the month of April alone, we have about eight meetings scheduled either at the museum or we will bring some of the museum exhibits to schools and three senior citizen groups.

Praise - Thank you again for all your prayers and your financial support. The mission that Tricia and I started 30 years ago continues on as a part of her legacy. God gave me this verse when she died: John 12:24 "Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a seed; but if it dies, it bears much fruit." I feel like I'm beginning to see this fruit God promised as more opportunities open to use the museum to show God's handiwork and to go to China with His message.

Minnesota - We plan to go to Minnesota in September to teach homeschools and at Northwestern College. In God's work. Russ and Amy Pei Li (pronounced Pay Lee)
