Mad Cow Disease

7:30 PM, February 19, 2008, Room 116, Totino Fine Arts Center, Northwestern College

This devastating disease, which destroys the brain, is caused by the abnormal folding of a protein. It is a perfect example of the incredible complexity of life and why random changes cannot improve it. If we have trouble refolding a map, how can time and chance perform the intricate folding necessary for the three dimensional structure and function of this relatively small protein. And it is only one of at least 30 thousand proteins necessary for life, many of them far more complex.

Dr. Simat has a Masters and PhD from the University of Minnesota in Biochemistry and Physiology. He worked for the US Government Research Center at the VA Hospital in Minneapolis and then for Abbott Laboratories in Chicago. He has also done research for Kallestad Laboratories and Sanfoni Diagnostics Pasteur before accepting the position of Associate Professor of Biology at NWC.

All meetings are free and open to the public, an offering will be accepted.

Have you considered...

the chickadee's eyesight. The chickadee, like man, is able to use both eyes together to focus on a single object. Yet, it can use each eye independently one being nearsighted and the other eye being farsighted. Maybe you have seen a chickadee cock its head, one eye is searching for insects and seeds, focusing close; while the other farsighted eye searches the sky for possible predatory hawks. This ability allows the chickadee to see danger coming while eating. Did all of this come about by chance? No, this was a design given by God.

...stop and consider God's wonders. Job 37:14

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF

We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths.

We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds.

We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect.

We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind.

Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.
