Chinese and the Bible

7:30 PM, April 15, 2008, Room 116, Totino Fine Arts Center, Northwestern College

The original religion of China was a belief in the God of the Bible. For more than 4000 years the Emperor of China annually offered animal sacrifices to the Creator God of the Universe whom the Chinese called 'ShangDi' or 'Heaven'. This sacrifice pointed to the death of the returning Savior, God's Son Jesus Christ, who gave His life for the sins of the world on a wooden cross. 'The Border Sacrifice' as this ceremony came to be called, was discontinued in 1911 when the last Emperor of China was deposed.

Richard Broadberry has spent many years in Taiwan and Mainland China working in the field of Transfusion Medicine as a Biomedical Scientist. He has published almost 100 articles in that field. In addition, he is co-author of several books detailing how the ancient Chinese worshiped the same God as the ancient Hebrew people. He and his wife, Maggie are proud parents of 2 beautiful adopted Chinese daughters with a third one on the way. They make their home in England.

Mr. Broadberry will be speaking to China Outreach and other groups while in the Twin Cities.

All meetings are free and open to the public, an offering will be accepted.

Have you considered...

that there are more than 360 flood legends from around the world. One is even in our back yard and in a state park. Bear Butte in South Dakota (near Sturgis) has on their state park walls the Mandan Indian Flood legend. Nu-mohk-muck-a-nah (Noah) escaped a world-wide flood in a dug-out canoe. "Noah" and these animals were saved and landed on Bear Butte. A dove was sent out from the canoe, and it came back with willow leaves. Then, the animals left the dug out canoe 2 by 2. Doesn't this sound like Noah's Flood from the Bible? How did this show up in South Dakota? The ancestors of the Mandan Indians brought this history with them when they spread out from the tower of Babel. Now remember, there are more than 360 of similar flood legends all over the world.

... stop and consider God's wonders. Job 37:14

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF

We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths.

We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds.

We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect.

We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind.

Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.

Mail-order Creation Library

For several months, Christian Resource Center personnel have been loaning DVD's at our meetings. They have a large and expanding selection of videos from Answers in Genesis and other sources.

CRC is located at Grace Church Roseville. For information contact Jeannene Forshee at jcforshee@usfamily.net. If you have a couple hours a month, volunteers are needed at the library. This may be a wonderful use for your time and talents.

I want to become a member of TCCSA and I subscribe to the Statement of Belief. (Calendar year membership dues are $20.00. Students do not pay dues.)

I want to renew my membership in TCCSA (note dues above).

Please keep me on your mailing list and/or e-mail updates

I want to make a donation to help promote Creation Science.
