

Following the Evidence

7:30 PM, June 17, 2008, Nazareth Hall Chapel, Northwestern College

When evolutionists say that the "evidence proves" their theory, are they correct? How can we know?

What exactly is evidence? Proof? Truth? What are facts? Take a look at how a criminal investigator collects, collates and evaluates evidence in our system of jurisprudence, and how that evidence is treated in a trial. Examine the use of logic, both inductive and deductive, and the application of sound reasoning.

Neil Smith is a criminal investigator who has worked in many states on lots of cases. How does he determine what is true from often contradictory evidence? This presentation should be interesting to anyone with an inquiring mind.

All meetings are free and open to the public, an offering will be accepted.

Have you considered....

... gas prices. It is reported that the supply and demand is causing the crisis. This is not a new situation for the world's economy. Consider the eighteenth century's "economic crisis"... the lack of paper. It is hard to believe there has been a paper shortage; but at that time, paper was made from cotton and linen rags. These were in short supply because of increased literacy and commerce. Even English law required the dead to be buried in wool in order to save cotton and linen rags for paper making. Crisis! No, opportunity!

An entomologist, Rene Antoine Reaumur, noticed that American wasps would chew the fiber of trees and make paper nests. Reaumur said, "They (American wasps) teach us that paper can be made from the fibers of plants and without the use of rags and linen, and seem to invite us to try whether we cannot make fine and good paper from the use of certain woods."

The wasps showed us that the wood fibers could be separated and remade into paper and ...there was an unlimited supply available. We can thank God that He has already provided the solution to our "gasoline crisis." God has already placed the answer right before our eyes. We just need to have the eyes to see.

... stop and consider God's wonders. Job 37:14

Writing Contest

The 2008 TCCSA writing contest is history. Judges are reviewing the entries and participants may be asked to read their paper at an upcoming meeting.

Thanks to each student, parents and mentors for their efforts. We hope that some day through these efforts we will have more authors with a God-honoring perspective.

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF
 We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths.
 We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds.
 We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect.
 We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind.
 Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.

Mail-order Creation Library
 For several months, Christian Resource Center personnel have been loaning DVD's at our meetings. They have a large and expanding selection of videos from Answers in Genesis and other sources.
 CRC is located at Grace Church Roseville. For information contact Jeannene Forshee at jcforshee@usfamily.net. If you have a couple hours a month, volunteers are needed at the library. This may be a wonderful use for your time and talents.
