Patterns of Evidence: The Exodus -- With Clips from the Movie

Tuesday, July 21, 7:30, Totino Fine Arts F2128 , Univ. of Northwestern, 3003 N Snelling, Roseville

For more than 50 years, the vast majority of the world's most prominent archaeologists and historians have proclaimed that there is no hard evidence to support the Exodus account found in the Bible. In fact, they say that the archaeological record is completely opposed to the Bible's account. This view of extreme skepticism has spread from academia to the world. The case against the Exodus appears to be so strong that even some religious leaders are now labeling this ancient account as historical fiction.

Filmmaker Timothy Mahoney begins with the question, "Is the Bible just a myth, or did the archaeologists get it wrong?" He decided to tackle this issue with a deliberate scientific approach. After examining the details in the biblical text, he journeyed across the globe to search for patterns of evidence firsthand. The result is the most in-depth archaeological investigation into the Exodus from Egypt ever captured on film. The startling finds may change traditional views of how the Bible relates to ancient history.

All Meetings are free and open to the public, an offering will be accepted.

Have you considered...

...tree frogs. They live in trees sticking firmly to damp and dusty branches and leaves. How do they hold on without falling? It's all in the feet. Close inspection reveals pads with cracks and crevices from which mucus oozes. The mucus first cleans the dust and dirt off then more mucus oozes out creating a thin layer of "adhesive" to grip the surface. These tree frogs have feet that clean and stick. Did these sticky feet happen by accident and chance? How many tree frogs fell before they got it right? Tree frogs stick to leaves and branches and that is no easy feat. When we see design we know there must be a designer and the Designer is God.

...stop and consider God's wonders

E-mail Newsletters

Postage rates continue to increase and returned newsletters cost plenty. Some subscribers don't have email so we want to continue to offer these paper newsletters. If you have email, please consider going to the email version. You will receive your newsletter sooner and we include links to other activities you may be interested in. We remind you a few days before a meeting and include changes and additions. Thanks

Got plans?

Have you made plans for vacation this summer? Do you know of museums and other attractions near you with a Creation theme?

Well, Creation Today has done something about it. They have compiled a list of places that are available around the world as well as our own back yards. You can check it out at VisitCreation.org If you know of a place they missed, let them know on their web site.

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF

We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths. We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds. We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect. We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind. Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.
