Creation Vacations: Utah

March 21, 2017, 7:30 PM, Totino Fine Arts Room F2128, Univ. of Northwestern, 3003 N Snelling

With 5 national parks- Zion, Arches, Canyonlands, Capitol Reef, and Bryce Canyon along with scores of national monuments and state parks, Utah is full of geological surprises! The park signs proclaim these geological features are millions of years old. So how do we view this area from a young earth, creationist view? Join us as we take a tour of Utah's curious landscape and view them from a creationist perspective!

This is the second in a series of Creation Vacations by Julie Von Vett. In September, Julie spoke on the Black Hills/Badlands of South Dakota. She is always interesting and this will enable you to point your family and/or friends to great places to visit for vacations. We have past videos of her programs and others available for purchase at our meetings.

All Meetings are free and open to the public, an offering will be accepted.

Have you considered...

...the Red Record? Who would have thought the ancient Red Record of the Delaware Indians would contain information about the first chapters of Genesis? These (carved tablets) wooden tables written with red symbols recounted their history and were passed down to each generation. Here is just a sample, "At the beginning, the sea everywhere...the Great Spirit moved, everlasting, invisible, omnipresent... Bringing forth sky, earth, heavens, day, night, stars, birds, beasts, immortals, all were delighted, carefree, happy, ...But then, very secretly, an evil snake, came to the earth, wickedness... death. All of this was long ago in the land beyond the great Flood,... Flooding..., Filling..., Smashing..., Drowning.... Nenabush (Noah), grandfather of humanity... the Great Flood dried... Living there in cave shelter, home was Icy... To the north slope, to have Less cold, Many big-game Herds went. ..."

The Red Record parallels Genesis with the creation of the world, the fall, and the Flood. About 100 years after the Flood, the Delaware Indians would have left the tower of Babel and traveled north to Siberia. This area at the beginning and middle of the Ice Age was a vast, warm grasslands just right for mammoths and other game. So the people traveled north to this area. Then they crossed the land bridge into North America and settled there. How can we reach Native Americans for the gospel of Christ? Show them that Christianity is not just a Western religion but their ancient fathers knew and believed in the true God of the Bible.

For an in depth look at the Red Record see Bruce Malone's new DVD set The Rocks Cry Out, lesson 2. This DVD set of 6 lessons can be used in Sunday School/small group settings.

Writing Contest Papers Due May 15

Each year we invite any student to research and compose papers on creation science topics and turn them in for judging and possible prizes. For rules and suggestions please go to <http://tccsa.tc/archives/contest>. Our aim is to encourage kids to develop a desire and talent for researching and writing on the topic of Creation & Science. Our own Julie Von Vett starting writing Have You Considered articles for our newsletters and now has published two books.

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF

We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths. We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds. We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect. We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind. Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.
