

Jason Carlson

Jason Carlson is the Vice President of Christian Ministries International, an organization devoted to evangelism and equipping Christians to share their Faith with those in cults, world religions and false philosophies.

At the age of 32, his ministry outreach has already taken him to 28 countries on six continents speaking and teaching in churches, pastor's conferences, schools, universities, and seminaries. In the past year alone, Jason has preached in churches and taught in pastor's conferences in Russia, Cuba, Japan, Ukraine and Italy. He is a gifted communicator with a keen intellect and clearly communicates a Biblical Christian worldview in response to contemporary culture, the theory of evolution and the religions of the world.

He is a graduate of Bethel University having majored in Philosophy and Biblical Theology and has his Masters degree in Philosophy and Christian Worldview from Bethel Theological Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. His travels and studies include two trips to Israel and the Middle East.

Besides serving full time as Student Ministries Pastor at Salem Baptist Church in New Brighton, Minnesota, Jason also teaches courses on Cults and World Religions for Bethel Theological Seminary and Northwestern College, both in St. Paul, Minnesota. He is a featured Speaker for Worldview Conferences and is a sought-after speaker for College and high school retreats as well.

Jason and his family reside in Minnesota.
