Follow the Evidence: When evolutionists say that the "evidence proves" their theory, are they correct?

What exactly is "evidence"? "Proof"? "Truth"? What are "facts"? Take a look at how a criminal investigator collects, collates and evaluates evidence in our system of jurisprudence, and how that evidence is treated in a trial. Examine the use of logic, both inductive and deductive, and the application of sound reasoning.

What would convince you that evolution is true? What would convince you that intelligent design is true?
