In his book, Grand Canyon: A Different View, Tom combines the stunning photography of fellow Canyon guide Charly Heavenrich with the compelling commentaries of some of the leading creation science writers, researchers, and theologians of our time. The Canyon is shown from the largest geological wonders to the smallest flora, all intricate parts of God's hand at work. Join us as he shares with you how the Grand Canyon provides evidence for a global Flood and is a living testimony to God's word - all part of an important Biblical message.

Tom Vail's book on the Grand Canyon, Grand Canyon: A Different View, ignited firestorm of controversy, resulting in stories in many national news outlets, including the CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, NBC Nightly News, the New York Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, The Chicago Tribune, National Public Radio, the 700 Club and National Geographic. All this because the evolutionary establishment wanted to censor evidence for recent creation.
